As an AI language model, I don't have access to recent events or activities of Moleside Probus club, but I can provide a general report on what a Probus club is and what activities it typically offers.

Probus is an organization for retired or semi-retired people, with clubs spread throughout the world. The acronym stands for PROfessional and BUSiness, and it was originally founded in the UK in 1965. Probus clubs offer opportunities for retirees to meet new people, enjoy social activities, and stay mentally and physically active.

Moleside Probus is likely to be a local club that operates in the Moleside area, and it is likely that the club offers a variety of activities to its members. These may include:

1. Guest Speakers: Probus clubs often invite guest speakers to give talks on a variety of topics, ranging from history to current events to travel and more. These talks provide a great opportunity for members to learn something new and engage in interesting discussions.
2. Outings: Probus clubs may organize outings to local attractions, such as museums, galleries, and theaters. These outings provide a fun day out and allow members to explore their local area.
3. Interest Groups: Many Probus clubs offer interest groups where members can pursue their hobbies and interests together. Examples of interest groups might include gardening, book clubs, and bridge.
4. Social Events: Probus clubs often organize social events such as lunches, dinners, and parties. These events provide an opportunity for members to socialize and get to know each other better.
5. Community Service: Some Probus clubs engage in community service projects, such as volunteering at a local charity or organizing a fundraiser. This can be a great way for members to give back to their community and feel a sense of purpose.

Overall, Probus clubs like Moleside Probus provide a valuable opportunity for retirees to stay engaged, meet new people, and continue to learn and grow during their retirement years.
